

Want to let a local business know that you support businesses that choose wisely? Print out these calling cards, cut them out, fold in half and put on your table before you leave a cafe or restaurant.

Free farm animals from cruel farming practices

Make the commitment to serve eggs, chicken or pork produced from animals that have been farmed humanely. That means layer hens, meat chickens and pigs can move freely and express their full range of natural behaviours. Listen to your customers and join the growing number of businesses making the switch to humane food.
